

C.S.P.S. First Aid Course
Test 11

1. The highest award that the C.S.P.S. can present a member is the:
 - A. Life Member Award
 - B. Canadian Ski Patroller Award
 - C. Bravery Award
 - D. Safe Skiing Award

2. The purpose of first aid is:
 - A. to give free medical aid
 - B. to heal the injured
 - C. to save lives, prevent further injury and alleviate suffering until professional medical care becomes available
 - D. all of the above

3. First Aid is:
 - A. professional medical care given by doctors
 - B. only necessary when asked for by a casualty
 - C. immediate and temporary care given to a casualty
 - D. often done with the assistance of a nurse

4. The BEST method to control severe arterial bleeding from a puncture wound in the side of the neck is to apply:
 - A. direct pressure by pushing in on that area of the neck and wedge a folded cravat between neck and shoulder.
 - B. direct pressure by pushing the injured artery ends towards the back of the casualty's neck.
 - C. a cervical collar as a pressure bandage.
 - D. a snugly fitting pressure bandage.

5. Swelling, redness, tenderness, heat and pus may indicate an abscess formation. The first aid treatment would be to
 - A. burst and drain the affected area and apply dry sterile dressings.
 - B. cover the affected area with a dry sterile dressing and transport to medical care.
 - C. burst and drain the affected area, apply ointment or creams to relieve pain.
 - D. cover the affected area with creams to relieve pain.

C.S.P.S. First Aid Course
Test 11

6. The best choice as a substitute for a sterile dressing would be:
- A. a newspaper
 - B. cotton batting
 - C. a clean folded cloth
 - D. a paper bag.
7. Broad bandages can be used for:
- A. figure-of-eight bandages.
 - B. a pressure bandage for control of bleeding.
 - C. stirrup bandages.
 - D. small arm slings.
8. A small arm sling is used for:
- A. upper arm injuries between -the elbow and the shoulder.
 - B. injuries to the clavicle.
 - C. injuries between the elbow and the finger tips.
 - D. elevation of injuries to the wrist or hand.
9. When applying a body sling, the First Aider should be concerned about:
- A. maintaining access to the brachial artery.
 - B. spontaneous bleeding.
 - C. restricting the blood circulation in the arm. .
 - D. tying off on the uninjured side.
10. When using an open hand bandage, the knot is tied at the wrist on the:
- A. side of the hand with the injury.
 - B. back of the hand.
 - C. palm of the hand.
 - D. most convenient location.